Editorial message from Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences

The Asian Journal of Medicine and Biomedicine (AJMB) serves as a platform for sharing knowledge, fostering collaboration, and contributing to the advancement of our respective fields. The journal publication is a testament to our scholarly contributions that require dedication and hard work in preparing the manuscript to achieve academic excellence with meaningful impact. The research contributes to the rich tapestry of knowledge within our academic community.

As we navigate the vibrant landscape of academic publishing, I want to extend my gratitude to each of you for your dedication and tireless efforts in maintaining the high standards of AJMB. Your commitment to scholarly excellence plays a pivotal role in shaping the intellectual discourse within our academic community. As we move forward, I encourage you to continue fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment within the editorial team. Your insights, expertise, and commitment to integrity are crucial in ensuring the journal remains a beacon of excellence in disseminating knowledge.

The peer-review process, editorial decisions, and the overall management of the journal are integral to upholding the quality and reputation. I would like to express my appreciation for the time and energy you invest in supporting our authors, providing constructive feedback, and contributing to the growth of our scholarly community. Your efforts are instrumental in advancing the academic pursuits of our institution.

Thank you for your continued dedication and hard work. I have full confidence that, together, we will continue to elevate the standards of our publication and contribute meaningfully to the broader academic landscape.

Thank you for your dedication to academic excellence.

Best regards,

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Wan Rohani binti Wan Taib
Dean
Faculty of Health Sciences